CULTURAL CENTER

“Chickasaw people have long dreamed of a special place to celebrate, embrace and share the culture and heritage that bind us together as a people.”

– GOVERNOR BILL ANOATUBBY
The Chickasaw Nation

THE CHICKASAW CULTURAL CENTER, nestled on 109 acres of beautiful Chickasaw territory in Sulphur, OK, represents a legacy of the Chickasaw people. It is an interactive place that records our history and perpetuates our traditions for generations to come.

Visit the Chickasaw Cultural Center;

live the history.

The Chickasaw Cultural Center is a colorful, hands-on place that's as alive as the Chickasaw Nation. Every day, find different activities like dancing, singing, crafting, planting and weaving.

The Chikasha Poya Exhibit Center

is a state-of-the-art interactive exhibit gallery that houses the Council House Orientation Theater, Spirit Forest and Removal Corridor, as well as multiple “Language Learning Stations” and “Sit and Listen” video areas.

The 350-person Anoli Theater features a 2,400 sq. ft. HD screen and showcases films made by Chickasaws and about Chickasaws.

The Kochcha' Aabinili' Amphitheater

is an outdoor venue for many of the events that are integral to Chickasaw heritage: storytelling, singing, stomp dancing and more.
